Numb. XL.

THE Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Thurſday, September 25. to Thurſday, October 2. 1729.

THE Pennſylvania Gazette being now to be carry'd on by other Hands, the Reader may expect ſome Account of the Method we deſign to proceed in.

Upon a View of Chambers's great Dictionaries, from whence were taken the Materials of the Univerſal Inſtructor in all Arts and Sciences, which uſually made the Firſt Part of this Paper, we find that beſides their containing many Things abſtruſe or inſignificant to us, it will probably be fifty Years before the Whole can be gone thro' in this Manner of Publication. There are likewiſe in thoſe Books continual References from Things under one Letter of the Alphabet to thoſe under another, which relate to the ſame Subject, and are neceſſary to explain and compleat it; theſe taken in their Turn may perhaps be Ten Years diſtant; and ſince it is likely that they who deſire to acquaint themſelves with any particular Art or Science, would gladly have the whole before them in a much leſs Time, we believe our Readers will not think ſuch a Method of communicating Knowledge to be a proper One.

However, tho' we do not intend to continue the Publication of thoſe Dictionaries in a regular Alphabetical Method, as has hitherto been done; yet as ſeveral Things exhibited from them in the Courſe of theſe Papers, have been entertaining to ſuch of the Curious, who never had and cannot have the Advantage of good Libraries; and as there are many Things ſtill behind, which being in this Manner made generally known, may perhaps become of conſiderable Uſe, by giving ſuch Hints to the excellent natural Genius's of our Country, as may contribute either to the Improvement of our preſent Manufactures, or towards the Invention of new Ones; we propoſe from Time to Time to communicate ſuch particular Parts as appear to be of the moſt general Conſequence.

As to the Religious Courtſhip, Part of which has been retal'd to the Publick in theſe Papers, the Reader may be inform'd, that the whole Book will probably in a little Time be printed and bound up by it ſelf; and thoſe who approve of it, will doubtleſs be better pleas'd to have it entire, than in this broken interrupted Manner.

There are many who have long deſired to ſee a good News-Paper in Pennſylvania; and we hope thoſe Gentlemen who are able, will contribute towards the making This ſuch. We ask Aſſiſtance, becauſe we are fully ſenſible, that to publiſh a good News-Paper is not ſo eaſy an Undertaking as many People imagine it to be. The Author of a Gazette (in the Opinion of the Learned) ought to be qualified with an extenſive Acquaintance with Languages, a great Eaſineſs and Command of Writing and Relating Things cleanly and intelligibly, and in few Words; he ſhould be able to ſpeak of War both by Land and Sea; be well acquainted with Geography, with the Hiſtory of the Time, with the ſeveral Intereſts of Princes and States, the Secrets of Courts, and the Manners and Cuſtoms of all Nations. Men thus accompliſh'd are very rare in this remote Part of the World; and it would be well if the Writer of theſe Papers could make up among his Friends what is wanting in himſelf.

Upon the Whole, we may aſſure the Publick, that as far as the Encouragement we meet with will enable us, no Care and Pains ſhall be omitted, that may make the Pennſylvania Gazette as agreeable and uſeful an Entertainment as the Nature of the Thing will allow.

The Following is the laſt Meſſage ſent by his Excellency Governour Burnet, to the Houſe of Repreſentatives in Boſton.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Repreſentatives,

IT is not with ſo vain a Hope as to convince you, that I take the Trouble to anſwer your Meſſages, but, if poſſible, to open the Eyes of the deluded People whom you repreſent, and whom you are at ſo much Pains to keep in Ignorance of the true State of their Affairs. I need not go further for an undeniable Proof of this Endeavour to blind them, than your ordering the Letter of Meſſieurs Wilks and Belcher of the 7th of June laſt to your Speaker to be publiſhed. This Letter is ſaid (in Page 1. of your Votes) to incloſe a Copy of the Report of the Lords of the Committee of His Majeſty's Privy Council, with his Majeſty's Approbation and Order thereon in Council; Yet theſe Gentlemen had at the ſame time the unparallell'd Preſumption to write to the Speaker in this Manner; You'll obſerve by the Concluſion, what is propoſed to be the Conſequence of your not complying with His Majeſty's Inſtruction (the whole Matter to be laid the Parliament) it is very unlikely ever to be the Case.

That Concluſion which Her Majeſty was pleaſed to take into Conſideration, with the Advice of His Majeſty's Privy Council to approve of, and to Order that One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State ſhould receive the Pleaſure of the Crown thereupon, is in the Opinion of theſe Gentlemen, very unlikely ever to be the Caſe. If this was a falſe and ſcandalous Suggeſtion in their Letter, it becomes a Libel when it is publiſhed, and you have Reaſon to fear the Lords and Commons of Great Britain, who have always ſupported and maintained the Honour and Dignity of the Crown againſt all that have treated it unworthily, will be highly offended at thoſe who have publiſhed and diſperſed ſuch a Libel, in Order to turn away the Minds of this People from their dutiful Reſpect to the Crown, and make them hearken to the groundleſs Inſinuations of Francis Wilks and Jonathan Belcher, in contradiction to the Royal Word.

Your Meſſage of the 30th of Auguſt is all drawn up with the ſame Deſign of concealing the Truth from the People, and putting every thing in ſuch a Diſguiſe as they cannot eaſily ſee through; To this Effect you ſay, that the Settlement of the Civil Liſt, which I refer to, is not a parallel Caſe with ſettling my Salary during my Adminiſtration; the Parliament of Great Britain make that Settlement upon our moſt Gracious King, whoſe Intereſt and that of his Poſterity are inſeparable from the People, which is not the Caſe with me. You ſhould have ſaid, to make your Argument prove any thing, Which is not the Caſe with His Majeſty and this People; For it is not I that demand a Salary, but His Majeſty Himſelf; and it is not to me that it can be legally granted, but only to His Majeſty for the Uſe of his Governour: And if you thought His Majeſty's Intereſt as inſeparable from the Intereſt of this People, as you allow it is from the Intereſt of the People of Great Britain, you muſt have owned that the Caſe was parallel with the Settlement of the Civil Liſt: For though his Majeſty demands the Salary during my Adminiſtration, yet that is a Term wholly in his own Breaſt; and what you mention, that my private Intereſt is highly and apparently concerned in it, is nothing to the Point, if you had that Confidence which you ought to have in His Majeſty, that He will remove me when I deſerve it.

The Remainder of this Meſſage, with the Aſſembly's laſt Reply, will be inſerted in our next.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Stockholm, June 2. The Talk is reviv'd that our King intends to go to Caſſel, and from thence to Hanover, to confer with the King of Great-Britain and ſeveral other Princes of the Empire.

Hanover, June 14. The Lord Townſhend arrived here laſt Tueſday Night, and next Day all the Commanding Officers of the two Battalions of Foot Guards, to the Number of 42, arm'd and cloath'd like Common Soldiers, repair'd to the Square of the Caſtle before the King's Apartment, and perform'd an Exerciſe. In a few Days his Majeſty intends to review 15 Regiments of his Guards, 19 Squadrons of Horſe and Dragoons, and 12 Battalions of Foot.

London, April 12. By our Accounts from Cornwall, the Tin-men who were riſen for Hunger, are diſpers'd, and gone Home to mend their Kettles, which will be very uſeful to them, in Caſe they ſhould get any Thing to eat.

April 19. Laſt Saturday a young Fellow was preſs'd as he was going to Church with his Bride to be married; the Bride begg'd hard to be married before they carried him off, but this being a religious Preſs-Gang they carry'd him off before Marriage, becauſe they ſaid it would be a Sin to part Man and Wife.

London, June 26. The laſt Letters from Hanover adviſe, that his Majeſty continued in perfect Health; that there was a numerous Court; great Numbers of Perſons of Diſtinction coming daily from ſeveral Courts in Europe; that the Lord Viſcount Townſhend kept an open Table; and that it was talk'd, his Majeſty will not ſet out on his Return to Great-Britain, 'till ſome Time in October.

Yeſterday about Five in the Morning, died at Kenſington, (after a long Illneſs) aged 71 Years, and 9 Months, the moſt Noble Peregrine Osborne, Duke of Leeds, Marquis of Carmarthen, &c.

His Son, the Marquis of Carmarthen, is now Duke of Leeds.

They tell us from Holt in Wiltſhire, that a Man aged 66, was married to a Maid of 26, without any Courtſhip of himſelf; the Match being made by another Perſon, on Wedneſday the ſame Day it was propos'd; they were married on Thurſday, and the Man died the Friday following: So that the Bride was courted, married, became a Wife, a Widow, and we preſume was left a Maid, all within 24 Hours.

June 28. That deſtructive Liquor Geneva is to be ſold no longer than Monday next, without paying 20 l. per Annum for a Licence, which 'tis hop'd few Diſtillers or Retailers will find worth their while to take out.

A poor Servant Maid at Bromly in Kent, having hang'd herſelf laſt Week, a Paper was found in her Pocket with theſe Words, Geneva has been the Ruin of me. But Geneva is now going down, and when any Thing elſe is in the like Condition, all its Villanies will come out, and no Body will be afraid to accuſe it.

From the Prints we received by this Poſt from Boſton, dated Sept. 22.

Vienna, July 27. N. S. Frequent Councils have been holden upon the Arrival of the ſeveral Expreſſes; and it is generally ſaid, the Peace is as good as ſettled. Nevertheleſs our Letters from Paris inſinuate, that the Engliſh Plenipotentiaries would not abate a Jot of their Pretenſions, but inſiſt more ſtrenuouſly than ever upon the Point of Indemnification for the Loſſes ſuſtained by the Merchants of their Country, thro' the Depredations committed by the Spaniards, more particularly in the Weſt-Indies, by taking and confiſcating their Ships, in Violation of the moſt ſolemn Treaties ſtill ſubſiſting between the two Crowns: But this the Spaniſh Plenipotentiaries wave with with their utmoſt Induſtry, ſo that the Settlement of that Article may occaſion abundance of Diſpute.

Paris, Aug. 3. N. S. The Plenipotentiaries of the Congreſs of Soiſſons continue their Aſſemblies at Mr. Stanhope's at Pieteau; and there now appears to be not the leaſt Doubt remaining as to a ſpeedy Accommodation with Spain, of which we daily expect to hear of the Concluſion.

London, Aug. 7. We are aſſured that a Meſſenger is arriv'd from Port St. Mary's, who brings Diſpatches of the 19th paſt, O. S. particularly the rough Draught of a Treaty for a Peace with Spain, as approved of by that Court; and we are informed that the ſaid Draught, being approved by Her Majeſty, has been ſent by an Expreſs to Hanover; and if the ſame meets with His Majeſty's Approbation, proper Inſtruments will be ſent for the Signing this Treaty on the Part of Great Britain.

We are informed, that the Treaſure, &c. brought by the Galleons and Aſſogues Ships, are to be deliver'd out before the Flota ſail from Cadiz, in order to encourage the Traders as well in New Spain, as in Europe.

The South Sea Company is by this Treaty forthwith to have a Schedula for ſending a Ship to New Spain.

Williamsburgh, Auguſt 29.

Some time ſince, Six convicted Servants, viz. Four white Men, one white Woman, and one Mullatto Man, living with ſeveral Maſters on Rapahanock River, combin'd together to run away, and accordingly ſtole a Boat, went down the River to the Bay, and proceeded to the Mouth of York River, where they met with an old Man and his Boy in a ſmall Sloop, going to carry Corn from one Part of the Bay to another; they forc'd the Man and Boy to ſurrender the Sloop, and gave them the Boat which they had: Then they proceeded in the Sloop towards New-York; but by their Unskilfulneſs in Navigation, and contrary Winds, they were kept out ſo long, that they were almoſt periſh'd with Hunger; at length they were met by Capt. Long, in His Majeſty's Ship the ------ The Convicts told the Captain a formal Story, That they ſail'd from London in a Ship bound for theſe Parts; but were unfortunately met with by Pirates, on this Coaſt, who took them and their Ship, ſtripp'd them of all, and turn'd them (poor Creatures) adrift in that little Sloop, &c. The Captain had Compaſſion on them, took them on Board, order'd them to be better cloath'd and fed, and ſo proceeded towards Virginia. Mean time, one the Man of War's Sailors, rummaging their little Sloop, found ſome Skrews and Rollers, who immediately inform'd the Captain of it, and told him, that as thoſe Things were uſed in no other Country than Virginia or Maryland, for rolling Tobacco, he believed thoſe People were Run-aways from thence, and had impos'd Falſhoods on him. The Captain thereupon ordered one of them (a young Man of a better Countenance than the reſt) to be brought to him, who, upon Examination, confeſs'd the whole Story of their Running away, and taking the poor old Man's Sloop from him. They were then ſecur'd, and when the Ship arrived in Virginia, were deliver'd up to Juſtice, committed to Priſon, and were laſt Week try'd at this City, by a Court of Admiralty, were found guilty of Piracy, and all Six received Sentence of Death. His Honour the Governour, thro' his own Clemency and the Interceſſion of Captain Long, has been pleas'd to reprieve the young Man above-mention'd, and one other; and the reſt, viz. Two white Men, one White Woman, and a Mulatto Man, are to be executed in a few Days; and two of them hung in Chains, viz. one at Rappahannock River, near the Place from whence they ran, and the other at York River, near the Place where they committed the Piracy. This Account we thought proper to publiſh, in hopes it may be a Means to deter Others from ſuch wicked Courſes, leſt they ſhould fall under the like unhappy Circumſtances.

Our Crop of Tobacco in this Colony, is generally but very indifferent this Year.

Annapolis, September 16. Mr. Clifford Dancer, a Merchant, lately arrived from Liverpool, Mr. John Moll of Newtown, Kent County, and two Sailors, coming in a Long-Boat with Goods from Cheſter River, for this City, were on Friday Se'night laſt overſet in the Bay, by a violent Guſt of Wind, and all drown'd. And one Mr. Hutton, Maſter of a Sloop in Suſquehanna River, was lately drown'd.

The great Hopes the People of this Province had conceived, that a Paper-Currency would be granted at this Time, are entirely quaſh'd; the Bill for emitting it not paſſing the Upper Houſe.
